

A Country Christmas

by Cynthia - Friday, November 28, 2014

<http://theleaningcottage.com/a-country-christmas/>

Tin Lanterns with the twinkle of real candle light.

For the first time in twelve years, I won't be decorating my little cottage for Christmas. So I thought I would dream a little bit and bring you Christmas style from others. These have a strong Scandinavian influence which is no accident...it's my favorite Christmas style; simple and restrained.

I hope you find some inspiration.

Always,

Cindy

A simple tree in an old galvanized bucket. My favorite kind of tree stand.

The beauty of the red barn with bright white trim just sings Christmas.

White table with a smattering of red for the Holidays.

Save for some candles, a plain tree that looks just lovely.

pretty as well.

Lovely tree sculptures seem simple and are

for a stunning display.

Classic Swedish grey with high contrast red the window.

A few berries in a bucket and simple garland swag across looks effortless.

Unfussy, barely there Christmas style

A simple make-do heart wreath from garland.

Simple. Simple. Simple.

Traditional candle chandelier.

Country stairs simply adorned that say "Welcome."

PDF generated by Kalin's PDF Creation Station